STÜKEN Management Team is complete again - Boris Maiweg takes over Sales and Marketing

Rinteln, 10. März 2025 – Since March 1st, 2025, the STÜKEN management team is complete again. Graduate engineer Boris Maiweg has joined the company as the new Managing Director and is taking over responsibility for Sales and Marketing.

With the appointment of Mr. Maiweg, the top management of the world's leading manufacturer of deep-drawn parts is once again complete. The management team now consists of three members: Dr. Krismann, CEO, is responsible for the technical divisions, while Mr. Wohlert, as managing partner, oversees the commercial areas of the company's leadership.

Mr. Maiweg, a 54-year-old mechanical engineer, brings extensive international experience to the role. He has held various leadership positions in sales, marketing, development, and program management in Germany, Switzerland, North America, and Asia. His vast expertise across multiple customer industries, particularly the automotive sector, is especially valuable to STÜKEN.

With his broad expertise and international experience, Mr. Maiweg will make a significant contribution to STÜKEN's continued growth and further strengthen the company's global market position.

Über STÜKEN

Founded in 1931, STÜKEN is today considered the world's leading supplier of precision deep-drawn metal parts. Almost 40 billion deep-drawn components are produced annually at the Rinteln plant in Germany alone. The product range also includes stamped and formed parts, plastic injection molded components and sophisticated assemblies. The products are used in a wide range of applications from the automotive industry to medical technology, from electronics to household appliances. The family-owned company has subsidiaries in the USA, the Czech Republic and China, a further plant in India is being planned. STÜKEN employs around 1,250 people and generated a turnover of 219 million euros in 2023.
